

Nasser Lubay is a visual artist based in Manila, Philippines. Was born in 1982 in Candelaria, Quezon. In 2009 he won 2nd Place in the Celeste International Art Prize in Berlin, Germany. He was chosen as one of the Young Ambassadors of Jollibee representing the arts and was invited to exhibited in the 2nd Animamix Biennale 2010. He was part of the 2010 Ondarte International Artist Residency in Akumal, Mexico. He was also shortlisted in Celeste 2010 Digital Graphics and a finalist in Kuala Lumpur Design Week 2009.

His art is an abstraction of captured moments fused in a mixed of pop, psychedelic, surreal, and fantasies. His visual composition starts from a flow in his hand forging into biotic, organic and geometric outcomes. He meticulously strokes his vivid colors with a dimensional effect on the artworks.
